20 years of Struggles for Social Justice

Common Front Annual General Assembly

Saturday, June 17, 2017, in Moncton

Dear members,

The Common Front for Social Justice's Annual General Meeting will take place Saturday, June 17, 2017, from 10:00am to 4:00pm at the St George Anglican's Church, 51 Church Street, in Moncton.

Our theme is 20 years of Struggles for Social Justice. In the morning, the NB Common Front for Social Justice wants to celebrate its 20 years of existence by honouring the past presidents, executive members, coordinator and donors. Without them, we would not have an organization that is still very active and relevant in 2017.

The Annual General Meeting will be a great opportunity to get some insight on our past campaigns, evaluate what has worked or not and try to see what the future looks like for our organization.

During the members' meeting in the afternoon, we will develop our Action Plan for the coming year and elect the members who will make up the Provincial Council.

We encourage you to attend this very important meeting.

The registration form is enclosed. You must return it to us before June 2, 2017.

If you need a place to stay, please contact us before June 2, 2017, by e-mail or by phone at 506-855-8977. Also, we can help participants with travel costs by offering 30 cents a kilometre ($0.30/km), but you will need to contact us in advance. We will not pay the kilometres when the person is travelling alone.

We look forward to seeing you again on June 17, 2017, in Moncton.

Sincerely yours,

Jean-Claude Basque, Provincial Coordinator
