

Let us highlight the World Day of Social Justice on Feb. 20th

Bernard Richard, lawyer and former N.B. ombudsman will be the guest speaker

On February 20th, the United Nations invites us all to reflect on our responsibility to promote social justice. Groups contributing to social justice and the general public are invited to this event which will be held in the Council Chamber at Moncton City Hall, 655 Main St.

- | | |
|------------|--|
| 11:30 a.m. | Presentation by Bernard Richard |
| Noon | Question period and comments |
| 12:10 p.m. | Recognition of local organizations which are involved in social justice activities |
| 12:30 p.m. | Light lunch, tea and coffee |

Activity organized by:

- Association acadienne et francophone des aînées et aînés du N.-B.
- N.B. Coalition for Pay Equity.
- N.B. Federation of Labour
- N.B. Common Front for Social Justice
- Social Justice Committee, John Paul II Pastoral Unit, Moncton
- St. Paul's United Church, Riverview and Chignecto Presbytry.

Register with Auréa Cormier, 204-1134 or aureacormier@rogers.com before Feb. 18th